

Year 1 – Summer 1 – Paws, Claws and Whiskers

History/Geography

- Identifying different types of weather
- Human and physical features of habitats in the UK
- To understand the differences and similarities about the UK and Kenya

Learning for Life (PSHE and SRE)

- Drawing our families
- Qualities of a good friend
- Appropriate physical contact
- To know who can help me at school
- To tell someone why I appreciate them

Maths

- Numbers to 100
- Money recognition
- Time
- Fractions

Computing

- To know what an algorithm is
- To move a programmable toy
- To correct a simple algorithm
- To debug algorithms

Hook/Engagement/Trip

Imaginary animal day. Come to school as an imaginary animal. What does your animal eat? Where does it live? What can it do?

Physical Education

- Dance – to develop co-ordination, agility and perform simple movement patterns
- Gymnastics – to explore different techniques for movement on apparatus

Religion and World Views

- Authority
- How people with authority help us
- The events in Jesus' life which demonstrate authority
- The importance of Jesus' authority to Christians

Art/Design Technology

- To use lines to represent a popular pet
- To create animal skin using printing and collage
- To create fact file, poster about Henri Rousseau and use skills and techniques that he used
- Recreate a Henri Rousseau style portrait

Science

- Animal observations
- Name animals including fish, amphibians, reptiles, birds and mammals.
- Describe and compare animals
- Label and describe the structure of animals
- Pets

English (Reading, Writing, Grammar and Phonics)

Key Text:

Wanted: The Perfect Pet by Fiona Robertson

- Recount of hook day
- Creating a list
- Writing questions for a character in the book
- Labeling a cat
- Writing an advert for the perfect pet – a cat
- Innovating our own version of the perfect pet
- Non-fiction fact file about ducks

Opportunities for home learning (in addition to daily reading)

Paws, Claws and Whiskers home learning projects

Weekly mental maths activities

Weekly phonics activities

