

Subject Report 2023-2024

Subject	School Council	Report prepared by	Fenella Holmes
----------------	----------------	---------------------------	----------------

Overview of the year:

3 key messages of the year:

- School council would like the playground to be clean and tidy.
- School council would like to bring back the planters and arrange a rota to look after them.
- School council will be used to gather pupil voice on a range of topics.

Curriculum: Intent, implementation, Impact

Intent

The Cambridge School Council will be a purposeful and proactive group that represent the pupils' views and bring about change.

In School Council, A Cambridge Pupil will develop:

Key Skills	Qualities
<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Confidence- Being an upstander- Leadership	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Pupils will be encouraged to actively participate in meetings, communicate with their classes and speak in assemblies- The school council will be role models and relay key behaviour messages to their classes as necessary- Older pupils in the school council will mentor younger ones and support them in giving messages to their classes

Implementation

Weekly meetings are held during assembly time. The previous week is discussed and tasks are reviewed e.g. what did our classes say when we asked them about x?

As necessary, the council lead assemblies and carry out pupil voice activities.

Impact

The School Council will be seen as an active body that brings about change. Pupils will aspire to be a member of the council. All pupils will know who their school council representatives are. Progress will be made against the yearly projects.

How are Fundamental British Values, the Cambridge Learning Characteristics and personal development promoted within your subject?

Fundamental British Values

The projects centre around inclusion, respect for others and the environment. The council are elected by vote which is an example of democracy. They are representative of our school community and reflect the diversity of our school community.

The Cambridge Learning Characteristics (BICO)

The school council work collaboratively on projects. They must take ownership of speaking to their classes and delivering messages.

Opportunities for Personal Development

Being part of the council develops many skills in this small group of pupils. We will work on how the school council can be used to develop the whole school community.
